After distillation within 48 hours of racking, the grappa is aged for one year in oak casks followed by an ageing period in apple, pear and wild cherry wood barrels. It is then further aged in the bottle for more than a year.

Alcohol Content	42%
Color	bright amber
Serving temperature	16°-18°C